

Belgorod State Technological University named after V.G. Shukhov

BSTU named after V.G. Shukhov, founded in 1954, is one of the 33 flagship universities of the Russian Federation.

The University has been holding the first place among related universities for many years, and is among the top 100 higher educational institutions in Russia.

Education at the university is multilevel and multidisciplinary. The university includes 42 departments and 9 institutes. There are 34 bachelor, 10 specialist, 27 master and 15 postgraduate degrees. Students can study in full-time, part-time and part-time forms.

About 15 thousand students study at the university, including about 2000 foreign citizens from 69 countries of Europe, Asia, Latin America.

Over 100 agreements on mutual cooperation concluded with leading Russian and foreign universities. There is a preparatory faculty for foreign citizens. Professional education is carried out under the double degree program. There are 10 study directions taught in English.

Glagolev Sergey Nikolaevich
Rector
Belgorod State
Technological University
named after V.G. Shukhov*

Contacts:

Address: 308012 Kostyukova st., 46,
Belgorod, Russia

E-mail: rector@intbel.ru

Website: <https://www.bstu.ru/>