Volgograd State University

Founded in 1980, Volgograd State University is currently one of the largest research and educational centers in Southern Russia that has powerful information and computing resources, significant scientific potential and active position in strengthening international cooperation.

- 9,000 students
- 140+ educational programmes
- 500 professors
- 4 consortia
- 60+ foreign partners

Volgograd State University usually ranks top positions in the national and international academic rankings because of quality education, state-of-the-art equipment and highly qualified specialists. The University conducts research in various areas including computer science, nanotechnology, chemical physics, astrophysics, environmental sciences, economics, social sciences, linguistics, etc. Our TeleNovo Engineering Center puts strategic priorities towards the implementation of technologies in the manufacturing, technological and business processes of enterprises.

- 9 institutes
- 7 dissertation boards
- 90 research laboratories
- 24 scientific and research centers
- 3 journals indexed by Scopus & WoS

KALININA Alla, Professor , Doctor of Economics
Rector
Volgograd State University

Contacts:
Address: 100 Prospect Universitetsky, Volgograd, 400062
E-mail of Rector's Office: rector@volsu.ru
E-mail of International Office: oms@volsu.ru
Website: https://volsu.ru/other/eng/