

Diplomatic Academy of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Russia

The Diplomatic Academy of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Russia is the one of the oldest diplomatic academy in the world back to some 85 years. It is a unique multidisciplinary educational and scientific center known all over the world.

Every year the Academy receives dozens of foreign delegations. Foreign ministers, politicians, public figures, heads of international organizations, senior military leaders, authoritative scientists, editors of leading mass media from more than 70 countries give lectures and speeches in its auditoriums.

The Diplomatic Academy has traditionally enjoyed a well-deserved prestige in Russia and abroad, is famous for the highest professionalism of its academic staff: prominent scientists and diplomats have worked and continue to work in the Academy, passing on their fundamental knowledge and practical skills to the audience.

Every year the Diplomatic Academy on its courses trains ambassadors and consuls before their business trip to foreign countries. Over the past decades the Academy has trained a whole galaxy of specialists in the field of international relations, diplomacy, economics and international law.

The Diplomatic Academy is an elite educational institution that has managed to fit into the new realities and requirements of the labor market. The Academy is proven to educate adequately and effectively personnel in the interests of Russia.

Traditionally the Diplomatic Academy is famous for its unique highly effective method of intensive teaching of foreign languages. Today more than 29 foreign languages are taught at the Academy.

YAKOVENKO

Alexander,

Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary, Doctor of Law, Professor

Rector

Diplomatic Academy of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Russia

Contacts:

Address: 119021, Moscow,
Ostozhenka 53/2, building 1

E-mail: info.rector@dipacademy.ru

Website: <https://www.dipacademy.ru/en/>