Guidelines for International Students' Admission to Niigata University Residence Halls

Approved by International Exchange Commission's Special Committee on January 31, 2012

(Purposes)

- I The Guidelines set forth rules concerning the selection of international students to be admitted to a Residence Hall, based on those of Niigata University Residence Hall Rules.

(Definition)

- II In the Guidelines, the meanings of the terms listed in the following items shall be as prescribed respectively in those items.
 - (1) Rikka Residence Hall: Niigata University Rikka Residence Hall.
 - (2) Ikarashi Residence Hall: Niigata University Ikarashi Residence Hall.
 - (3) International student: An international student who is permitted to stay in Japan with a status of residence "Student" or those who are expecting to have this status of residence.

(Qualification of Applicants)

- III Applicants for Rikka and Ikarashi Residence Halls must meet the following conditions to qualify.
 - (1) To be admitted to Rikka Residence Hall, an applicant must be enrolled as a degree-seeking student in Niigata University or must be scheduled to enroll as such at the time of lodging application.
 - (2) To be admitted to Ikarashi Residence Hall, an applicant must be enrolled as a degree-seeking undergraduate student in Niigata University or must be scheduled to enroll as such at the time of lodging application.

(Application Period for Residence Halls)

- IV The period of application will be announced separately. When there are vacancies, additional applications will be accepted after an announcement.

(Selection Standards and Process)

- V Selection standards of applicants and process will be as follows.
 - (1) Students who wish to be admitted to a residence hall must submit application documents (with required attachment) during a specified period set forth in a separate rule.
 - (2) The selection for residents of Rikka Residence Hall will be based on application documents.

The status of applicants must be one of those described below at the time of moving in the Residence Hall. New applicants will be given priority. In the case that there are large numbers of applicants, a draw will determine who is accepted.

- ① Privately-financed international students (excluding foreign government dispatch students)
- ② Japanese government scholarship students
- ③ Foreign government dispatch students

- (3) The selection for residents of Ikarashi Residence Hall will be based on application documents. In the case that there are large numbers of applicants, a draw will determine who is accepted, giving priority to newly enrolled undergraduate students.

(Period of Residence Permitted)

VI As a rule, residence permit for international students will be either minimum period required for graduation or for two years. Priority will be given to the earlier day. This rule is not applied to residents who were admitted to reside before April 1,2012

. Additional Guidelines on Selection Standards for International Students' Admission and Period of Residence Permitted

Approved by International Exchange Commission's Special Committee on January 31, 2012

(Purposes)

I As to non-degree-seeking students, guidelines on Selection Standards and period of residence permitted are as follows.

(Application)

II Applications of non-degree-seeking students who are currently enrolled or will enroll at Niigata University will be accepted if only there is vacancy.

(Period of Residence Permitted)

III Non-degree-seeking students are allowed to stay in residence hall during the period that they are allowed to enroll at Niigata University.

(Extension of Residence Period)

IV In the case that non-degree-seeking students, who are currently residing in Rikka Residence Hall wish to extend their stay to the next year, they will be allowed only if there is vacancy.

2. In the case that described above, their residence period will be no more than two years from the date they commence to reside in Rikka Residence Hall.
